Dear Mr. Casey,

STAT

I would like to thank you for the assistance your agency rendered the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Chicago Division, during a development of Counter-Intelligence Awareness (DECA) Technology Transfer (T<sup>2</sup>) briefing which was held in the Chicago, Illinois area, on August 28, 1985, for U.S. Government classified contract firms.

The utilization of

in joint effort with the FBI to bring about an awareness of Hostile Intelligence activities in the U.S.A., and an understanding of methods of illegal technology transfer used by these intelligence operatives in obtaining state of the art technologies from the United States and our western industrialized nations, was truly appreciated.

Their dedication to duty and their professionalism not only brought about a better understanding of the U.S. Government's role in the above, but reinforced in the participant's minds confidence in the U.S. Government and further showed the necessity for the seminar participants to cooperate with our mutual Governmental organizations.

These two men should be highly commended for their effort, enthusiasm and professional dedication in their presentation. I hope to be able to obtain your cooperation and assistance in similar future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Edward D. Hegarty
